

Taneycomo Festival Orchestra

12th SEASON

CONCERT SCHEDULE

JUNE 18 - JULY 1, 2023

Welcome to the 12th season of the Taneycomo Festival Orchestra! We are excited to bring free, accessible classical performances to the Ozarks once again.

The Taneycomo Festival Orchestra brings together up to 50 musicians from around the globe to bring free classical music performances in casual, educational, and accessible atmospheres to the Ozarks. The TFO provides musicians with free housing, meals, and professional development seminars in addition to musical growth. But we cannot present these concerts without you.

As we navigate challenging spaces, please consider making a contribution to your orchestra in the Ozarks. 90% of our total budget comes from individual donations, necessary to continue producing an orchestral experience at the high level you've come to know and expect.

Contributions come in many forms with the TFO. We will need to provide our traveling musicians with meals and homestays (with hosts, at hotels, condos, timeshares, etc.) during the festival. If you are interested in becoming a host, sponsor, or volunteer, you can learn more on our website!

Every contribution—no matter the size—is vital to the sustainability of the Taneycomo Festival Orchestra. Our summer music festival would not be possible without YOU.

The Taneycomo Festival Orchestra is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and all donations are 100% tax deductible.

VOLUNTEER

Want to volunteer? Please fill out the Google Form on our website.

FEED THE ORCHESTRA

Approximately 50 graduate student musicians will travel from across the country to play with the TFO next summer. We love to treat them to something that they are not accustomed to: lots of home-cooked meals. Fill out our application on the website to apply to host a meal.

PROVIDE SNACKS

Snacks and water bottles are a great way to maintain energy in the orchestra during long days of rehearsal. Fill out our application on the website to apply to let us know when you'd like to bring your donation!

DONATE

Monetary donations help us continue our mission of bringing classical music to the Ozarks. We use money to rent sheet music, provide lunches and travel stipends for musicians, and to pay our hard-working staff. You can donate online by clicking the "Donate" button on our website, or by mailing a check to our address: 205 Woodson Bend Road; Branson, MO 65616.

You can also subscribe to our Patreon profile which allows patrons to make small donations each month! Doesn't $2 per month seem feasible? Every little bit counts, and your support is invaluable at any level!

HOST A MUSICIAN

At TFO, we provide musicians with host families to cut down on the cost of running the festival and to give our musicians who travel all over the world to play in TFO the true "Branson Experience." Hosting musicians is a great way to build an intimate relationship with our orchestra and to touch the lives of young musicians.

As a host family, you will be assigned musicians that we will match to your requests in the application below. In the first week of hosting, there will be a specific night designated to spending time with your musicians. The musicians will entertain you with a private concert, and we ask that you have a "family dinner" with them on this evening (evening TBA). This will be the only meal you will be asked to provide for your musicians. TFO will cover the rest of their food expenses, and we will arrange transportation for everyone. Our musicians are low-maintenance; all you need to provide for them is a place to sleep and shower. If you have any questions about hosting, please check out our Hosting FAQs on the website or feel free to Contact Us with any further questions.

We hope you will host a few musicians in your home next summer! Hosting musicians is considered an in-kind donation to TFO, and all donations are tax-deductible under the IRS code 501(c)(3): 45-3502856
